

NJ has one of the toughest "Do Not Call" laws on the books. Why should the Federal Government be able to weaken it because it is not as tough as theirs? How about this: Have the Federal Government make their law tougher. I am part of the DNC list and enjoy eating dinner in peace and not getting solicitations as late as 9 PM. This is a great law and should not be weakened!